

Avonworth

Coach: John Skarupa (5th year at Avonworth, 6th Overall)

Returning Starters:

Mackenzie Dawson, 5-7, senior, setter/opposite
Cassidy Johncour, 6-0, senior, middle hitter
Natalie Meng, 5-7, senior, outside hitter
Sydney Shields, 5-8, senior Defensive Specialist
Clementine Dutot-Lucs, 6-0, sophomore, middle hitter
Megan Monti, 5-5, senior Defensive Specialist
Grace Rhode, 5-5, senior, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

This year, we're proud to have our largest roster yet, with every player gaining valuable experience in several matches last season. While we have many new faces, they each bring some varsity experience to the team. Our bench is also stronger than ever, with depth that ensures every player is well-matched with their teammates, promising an exciting and competitive environment both in practice and during games. I'm optimistic that we're positioned to make a strong push into the playoffs again this year.

Section Favorite:

Quaker Valley won our section last year and returns three stand out players. I believe it will be between us and them, but I also would not roll out OLSH and Hopewell as both of their coaches always can push their teams to throw a few surprises during the season.

WPIAL Favorite:

For the first time I believe there is no clear cut favorite as well as no current AA team has ever won WPIAL, it will be incredibly exciting to see who comes out on top but I have Quaker Valley, Neshannock, Keystone Oaks and us as the top 4 today.

Young Players to Watch:

Molly Robertson from NA is an incredibly talented setter/hitter. Julia Cernich from Avonworth will be coming onto the scene for us and will surprise everyone. Aubrey Blank from Shaler. Alicia Mokube from North Allegheny, Jamie Radvan from Freeport.

Beaver Falls

Coach: Caitlyn Pinkerton (1st year)

Returning Upperclassmen:

Aniyah Harris, senior, setter
Neveah Turner, junior, setter
Tori Swanson, sophomore, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

We have a younger team with a lot of potential and are excited to see how this year goes.

Young Players to Watch:

A few key players to look out for would be Zara Bentel, freshman, middle hitter; Dreana Haskins, freshman, setter; Hailey Tedrow, freshman, middle hitter; Jazmere Haynes, sophomore, libero.

Bentworth

Coach: Sean Cleary (1st year at Bentworth, 17th overall)

Returning Starters:

Chelsea Dindal, 5-9, senior, outside hitter
Nora Lindley, 5-10, senior, middle hitter
Kayla O'Dell, 5-7, senior, outside hitter
Sofia Gausa, 5-6, junior, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

We are a tweener team, not young but not old either. Only 3 seniors. We have a ton of athleticism and heart, but have some growth needed in knowledge and execution of skills. It will be a challenging season, but this group is fired up and tenacious and has what it takes to make noise and make a mark.

Section Favorite:

Being my first year I am not up to date with all of the teams and program histories, but from what I can see and what I have heard this will be a battle every night and each match will be playoff level with post season implications.

Burgettstown

Coach: Zuri Vigliotti (2nd year as head coach, 4th year with the program)

Returning Starters:

Peyton Mermon, senior, setter
Layla Sherman, senior, middle hitter
Savanna Rush, junior, outside hitter
Paige Klodowski, sophomore, outside hitter/libero

Season Outlook:

I am really excited for my girls this season. I truly believe they have what it takes to make their way to the top of our section this year. They definitely have the skills and mentality to do so. Falling short last year has only made them want it more this season, and I know if they set their mind to it that it can be done. I can't wait to get this season rolling!

Section Favorite:

Being that we bumped up from 1A to 2A this year it is hard for me to say if there is a favorite in our new section. However, I have confidence in my girls and I believe we could be one of the stronger teams in our section this year.

WPIAL Favorite:

I hate to say favorite, but there are definitely teams that my girls will be on the look out for this season. We have a great group of schools we are up against in Class 2A with a few of those making it to the semifinals last year.

Young Players to Watch:

The WPIAL has an amazing group of young athletes this year and I know personally I am excited to see what ALL of these young ladies will do this year.

Brownsville

Coach: Rachael Salvucci (2nd year after an 8-year break)

Returning Starters:

Payton Evanchak, 5'7, senior, outside hitter
Cyan Eliam, 5'8, junior, middle/right hitter
Skyler Gates, 6'4, junior, middle hitter
Ashley Evanchak, 5'4, sophomore, libero

Season Outlook:

We are a young team this year looking to incorporate some freshmen into our lineup. We are starting fresh with almost everyone in different positions and looking to improve our play as a team. We also had teams leave our section and new ones enter, so we are excited to play and experience other talent.

Section Favorite: Waynesburg

Young Players to Watch: Skyler Gates, Brownsville

Carlynton

Coach: Amaleen Malcolm (1st year)

Returning Starters:

Amelia Babish, 5-9, junior, middle hitter
Jordynn Carter, 5-5, senior, outside hitter/setter
Carlee Hughes, 5-7, junior, setter
Sarah Loney, 5-5, junior, defensive specialist/ libero
Olivia Thompson, 6-0, senior, outside hitter/middle hitter
Lucy Vetter, 5-7, junior, outside hitter

Section Favorite:

I am new to this section but I know last year Keystone Oaks won our specific section and really made our team play at a higher level. Due to how many of our athletes are returning this season, who have all continued to develop their skills I am excited to see what we can accomplish in the section this season.

WPIAL Favorite:

Throughout the entire WPIAL, North Allegheny has always been a well-rounded team and very exciting to watch.

Young Players to Watch:

I have not heard of anyone specifically. Being a new head coach, I have been really trying to focus on my team and making sure they are best prepared going into the season. I wish everyone the best of luck and hope I hear of many girls making an impact through this sport.

Charleroi

Coach: Samantha Fleming (1st year)

Returning Starters:

Avery Pendo, 5-2, senior, libero
Kyra Short, 5-7, senior, outside hitter
Emma Skobel, 5-2, senior, defensive specialist
Alexa Pro, 5-3, senior, setter
Lauren Leonetti, 5-6, senior, outside hitter
Mckenna Sheilda, 5-9, senior, outside hitter/middle blocker
Lilli Lee, 5-6, senior, opposite/middle blocker
Eden Smith, 5-8, junior, middle blocker
Charlee Wagner, 5-4, junior, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

Our team has been learning to work together for about 4 years now and has been under great leadership, so their talent and skill is very high. If the girls continue to work well together and come physically and mentally prepared for each game, I am confident that we should have no trouble competing against any of the teams in our section. We have 7 seniors, so our team is very experienced. With this, again I am confident that our girls will make it through the season with a positive record.

Section Favorite:

A few of our biggest competitors definitely include Brownsville and Waynesburg. They have some athletic girls on their teams that will make for good competition. Bentworth is also a team with lots of talent and athleticism that we have seen over the years.

WPIAL Favorite:

Southmoreland is a team that we have seen who have brought some good competition specifically with our team. Quaker Valley and Avonworth are also teams that we could see in the postseason. They are worth mentioning because of their gameplay last year and making it to the WPIAL semifinals.

Young Players to Watch:

Skylar Gates, junior, is a player worth mentioning from Brownsville. We have seen the skill that she brings on the court. Another player worth mentioning is Sydney Gongliek, sophomore, from Bentworth. She has a great arm swing that makes her a powerful player.

Chartiers-Houston

Coach: Ryan Hyland (2nd year)

Returning Starters:

Meadow Ferri, senior, outside hitter
Kylee Bandini, junior, middle hitter
Taylor Urbanic, junior, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

We are still in the process of rebuilding and we are very young. We look to compete for a playoff spot and build off of last year. We have a great group of players who are coachable and willing to buy into the culture we want to build. I believe the future is bright for this program.

Section Favorite:

We are in a new section, but I would have to say Brownsville.

WPIAL Favorite:

Quaker Valley or Avonworth

Young Players to Watch:

I don't know any at this time, but I'm looking forward to watching them this year.

Ellwood City

Coach: Jenna Ricciuti (9th year)

Returning Starters:

Emma Figurel, 5-9, senior, outside hitter
Chloe Bungar, 5-10, senior, middle hitter
Delaney Sturgeon, 5-11, senior, outside hitter
Caitlin Kreitzer, 5-6, senior, setter
Jhenavesza Miller, 5-3, senior, defensive specialist
Elsie Sturgeon, 5-5, senior, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

This is going to be another exciting season for our team! Our six seniors have been playing together since 7th grade and are preparing to win big in their last season together. We also have a close group of JV players that are going to see varsity time on the court. We always face tough competition in our section and are excited for the match ups this season.

Section Favorite: Ellwood City, Neshannock

Young Players to Watch:

I have 2 freshmen, Carah Kreitzer and Denim Elchison, that are going to make an impact on our team at a young age.

Hopewell

Coach: Terry Borkovic (35th year)

Returning Starters:

Jordan Siriani, 5-8, senior, outside hitter,
Alyssa Spang, 5-10, senior, middle blocker,
Reese Murray, 5-8, senior, opposite,
Philomena Catanzarite, 5-5, senior, libero,
Mikayla Kurta, 6-1, sophomore, middle blocker.
Brianna Indereist, 5-6, junior, outside hitter.

Season Outlook:

This team is solid both offensively and defensively. Hitters are experienced and intelligent. The entire offense returns from last season. The backcourt defense is improving by the day. Blocking should be an area of strength. This team will surprise some teams. We are highly capable of pulling off a major upset. As our tradition, our goal is compete for the section title and make a long playoff run.

Section favorite:

Quaker Valley. Avonworth and OLSH will contend for the section title.

WPIAL favorite: Quaker Valley

Young Players to Watch:

Hopewell's Mikayla Kurta

Keystone Oaks

Coach: Mike O'Leary (8th year)

Returning Starters:

Mia McCafferty, 5-10, senior, middle hitter
Ava Pintado, 5-10, senior, outside hitter
Amelia Walter, 5-9, senior, middle hitter
Kylie Stahl, 5-3, junior, libero

Season Outlook:

We lost a good bit of starters to graduation last year, but we return the core of our offense. We're excited to see how younger athletes take advantage of the opportunity for more playing time and we expect to build off of our successes last year.

Section Favorite: South Allegheny or South Park

WPIAL Favorite: Quaker Valley or Avonworth

Young Players to Watch: Viola MacNeil, Thomas Jefferson

Laurel

Coach: Lew Liparulo (1st year)

Returning Starters:

Tori Atkins, 5-11, senior, outside hitter
Hailey Collins 5-7, senior, setter
Sara Fedrizzi, 5-1, senior, defensive specialist
Kali Hamilla, 5-4, senior, opposite
Summer Haney, 5-8, senior, defensive specialist
Teagen Fortuna, 5-7, junior, defensive specialist
Alexis Gelwitz, 5-9, junior, middle hitter

Ligonier Valley

Coach: Emily Daugherty (6th year)

Returning Starters:

Emily Rankin, 5-5, senior, outside hitter/defensive specialist
Morgan Smith, 5-4, senior, libero
Kya Hegan, 5-2, senior, setter
Lacy Smith, 5-9, senior, middle hitter
Sydney Foust, 5-7, senior, middle/right hitter
Rylee Monticue, 5-11, sophomore, setter/outside hitter
Marlee Miller, 5-4, sophomore, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

We have a big group of seniors that will lead the way with our younger team. We hope with a large group of returning starters for our varsity that we will be able to compete for a top position in our section and make a run.

McGuffey

Coach: JoAnn Harshman (39th year at McGuffey, 40th overall)

Returning Starters:

Sarah Brownlee, 5-5, junior, setter
Nicole Klages, 5-3, junior, libero
Faith Ealy, 5-4, senior, outside hitter
Penelope Shriver, 5-7, senior, outside hitter
Ava Ullom, 5-10, sophomore, middle hitter
Ariana Augustine, 5-10, senior, middle hitter

Season Outlook

Baring injuries, we should be competitive in our section. If the girls come together, play as a unit, and avoid injuries, we should field a good team.

Section Favorite:

Waynesburg should be good. Burgettstown and Chartiers-Houston are new to the section.

Mohawk

Coach: Anna Fadden (4th year)

Returning Starters:

Malayna McBride, 5-10, senior, middle hitter
Riley Shaffer, 5-4, junior, setter
Sara Hampson, 5-4, junior, outside hitter
Carmen Hart, 5-5, senior, defensive specialist

Season Outlook:

We have a great group of committed players who have worked hard all off season. This season we have 4 returning starters from last year. We are continuing to build on our strengths and make weaknesses stronger as a team. Our goal is to continue being competitive and supportive on and off the court.

Young Players to Watch:

We have some juniors ready to make an impact on the court in the front row. Our senior setter ready to set you from anywhere.

Neighborhood Academy

Coach: Sophia Duck (3rd year)

Returning Starters:

Gabby Jarvis, 5-9, senior, middle hitter
Abigail Mullin, 5-8, junior, middle hitter
Neyla Hendi, 5-5, senior, setter
Audrey Jiang, 5-8, senior, outside hitter
Lailah Harris, 5-7, junior, outside hitter
Carys Brownlee, 5-4, sophomore, libero

Season Outlook:

We return six starters from last season. We are more experienced and look to compete every rally this season. We have added five newcomers who are excited and want to make an impact immediately.

Section Favorite:

Young Players to Watch:

Collette Griffith, 5-9, freshman from Neighborhood Academy.

Northgate

Coach: Tiaura Hanner (2nd year at Northgate, 3rd year overall)

Returning Starters:

Johna Ambramowicz, 5-6, senior, setter
Aniyah Settles, 5-9, senior, middle hitter
Kaylin Winters, 5-7, junior, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

We are building a program and growing as a team. Our team is high energy and excited about the season.

Section Favorite:

Neshannock

Coach: Jenny Bollinger (6th year)

Returning Starters:

Jaidon Nogay, 5-8, junior, outside hitter
Rian Owens, 5-9, junior, setter/opposite
Nora Ball, 5-4, junior, defensive specialist
Nina Medure, junior, setter/defensive specialist
Payton Newman, junior, outside/middle hitter

Season Outlook:

We are excited about the team we have! Great chemistry in the gym! We are gearing up for an exciting season! With a mix of experienced players and promising newcomers, the team is looking to build on their past performances and aim for a strong showing this year!

Section Favorite:

Always a fight between Shenango & Neshannock

WPIAL Favorite: Avonworth & Quaker Valley

New Brighton

Coach: Amanda Ardinger (1st year)

Returning Starters:

Alaya McKenzie, 5-9, senior, outside hitter
Karmen Briancesco, 5-5, senior, right side hitter
Sundi Fazio, 5-4, senior, setter
Sadie Walton, 5-9, senior, middle hitter
Elise Gerrich, 5-10, junior, outside/middle hitter
Ameera Walker, 5-7, junior, middle hitter

Season Outlook:

The Lions are returning to the court with 6 out of 7 starters this season, bringing a wealth of experience and a strong foundation to build upon. With their core lineup intact, fans can expect a high level of play and exciting matches as the team looks to build on last year's success. The cohesion and familiarity among the players will be a key asset as they strive for a standout season. Keep an eye out for dynamic performances and a spirited campaign from this talented squad. With new head coach Amanda Ardinger picking up where Wes Remley left off, the team is poised for an exciting season ahead. Ardinger's fresh perspective and leadership, combined with the strong core of returning players, promise to drive the Lions toward another successful campaign. Fans can look forward to a thrilling season as the team adapts to new strategies and builds on their solid foundation.

Section Favorite: Avonworth

Our Lady of the Sacred Heart

Coach: Mike McDonald (37th year as girls coach)

Returning Starter:

Leah Parker, 5'8, junior, opposite

Season Outlook:

Having to totally revamp and create a new line up with inexperienced returning players will be a continuous process hoping for improvement in performance and in-game decision making. We currently are using about 14 players total as we attempt to find a group that can gel and play together and continue to improve as we go.

Section Favorites:

The favorites in our section are Quaker Valley and Avonworth.

WPIAL Favorite:

The favorite in the WPIAL Class 2A might include the following teams: Quaker Valley, Avonworth, Neshannock, Shenango, and possibly South Park. Beaver and Freeport moved up to 3A, which will have an impact on the Class 2A playoff picture.

Quaker Valley

Coach: Mike Vavrek (14th at Quaker Valley, 20th overall)

Returning Starters:

Vanessa Pickett, 5-8, senior, setter
Molly MacDonald, 5-11, senior, outside hitter
Nora Hammond, 5-7, senior, outside hitter
Carmen Forsythe, 5-5, senior, defensive specialist
Mia Gartley, 5-9, junior, middle hitter

Season Outlook:

I expect my team to compete every night and improve everytime we step on the court. We have some veteran leaders back, and some new girls who have been around the program, but who are going to have to pick up the speed of the varsity game quickly for us to have success.

Section Favorite:

I believe that people will say that Quaker Valley and Avonworth may be the 2 favorites. I would not count out Hopewell and OLSH, as they are two teams that are always going to show up and compete every time you play them. New Brighton and Freedom are both improving and I believe both return a large number of girls from last year's team. Northgate and Aliquippa are both new to the section, so I will be interested to see them.

WPIAL Favorite:

I think with the AA WPIAL Champion from the previous 2 years (Beaver, Freeport) both moving up to AAA this year, the WPIAL is wide open for whoever wants it.

Riverside

Coach: Justin Bennett (1st year)

Returning Starters:

Bella White, 5-6, junior, libero
Elliot Hardy, 5-8, junior, outside hitter
Delana Fox, 5-7, senior, middle hitter
Suzie Bishop, 5-9, junior, middle hitter

Section Favorite:

What's unique about our section is that there are a lot of strong teams. It's a tossup between which team is going to come out stronger than the rest. Neshannock and Shenango always have a strong program.

WPIAL Favorite:

As a first-year head coach, I'm not sure of who the favorites are in the WPIAL.

Seton LaSalle

Coach: Kaleb Krebs (2nd year)

Returning Starters:

Addie Lonergan, 5-9, junior, outside/right hitter
Mary Starkey, 5-6, junior, outside hitter
Gigi Lonergan, 5-10, sophomore, setter

Season Outlook:

Looking to try and rebound from last year. Get 1 percent better every day.

Section Favorite: South Allegheny

WPIAL Favorite: Quaker Valley or Avonworth.

Young Players to Watch:

Ryan Cameron (Steel Valley) [junior] is the most athletic athlete in 2A Volleyball.

Shenango

Coach: Greg Dugan (33rd year)

Returning Starters:

Amara DeFrank, 5-10, senior, middle hitter
Zoe Offie, 5-9, junior, outside hitter
Anna McKinley, 6-0, sophomore, middle hitter

Season Outlook:

We have a very athletic team and are improving daily. We will be ready for the start of the season.

Section Favorite:

The section is very competitive and will be a battle every night.

WPIAL Favorite:

With Freeport and Beaver moved to Class 3A, that opens the Class 2A title picture to several teams.

Young Players to Watch:

junior libero Giada Christopher and sophomore outside hitter Emma Herb will both make an impact on this year's team.

South Allegheny

Coach: Jack Kelley (6th year)

Returning starters:

Ava Chizmar, 5-3, senior, setter
Regan McBeth, 5-11, junior, outside hitter
Ava Luft, 5-6, junior, setter
Violet Pastories, 5-3, junior, defensive specialist
Ally Chizmar, 5-8, sophomore, outside hitter

Season Outlook:

Our kill leader from last season, Regan McBeth (145 kills), is only a junior and has made great strides defensively and could play 6 rotations this year. Both of our setters, senior Ava Chizmar and junior Ava Luft, are back and looking really sharp after solid club seasons. Then we have sophomore, Ally Chizmar (who had 80 kills in her freshman year from the right side) moving to outside hitter this year, which should mean more attempts. But we still have some holes to fill. We graduated 3 very experienced, 6-rotation players (Bri Hayes, Lex Lundberg, Lindy Lucas) which is going to sting. But I think we have some players in waiting who are up for the challenge. Assuming we get back the two starters who recently suffered ankle injuries, we're confident that we can rebound from the loss of our graduating seniors. With our depth at all hitting positions and the improvement of our returning players, we expect to be a contender in our section once again. We also feel like it's about time we did something in the postseason and maybe get the South Allegheny Volleyball Program its first ever playoff win.

Section Favorite:

As always, our section is going to be tough. Like us, most of our section opponents seem to have lost important players to graduation. I also know of several young standouts in our section who have probably improved since last season. So it's hard to guess what everyone is going to look like this season. But despite the changes, Keystone Oaks is still likely the team to beat in our section this year.

WPIAL Favorite:

The two schools that played in the 2A championship last year moved up to 3A so I would expect Avonworth or Quaker Valley to be the favorites.

Young Players to Watch:

She's not young, but a new face to our starting lineup will be 5-9 senior middle hitter Alexis Bartrug. She has been stuck behind by a couple great middles for years and now and finally has the chance to prove herself. Alexis is long and jumps well and is causing problems for opposing hitters this summer. She's becoming a force offensively as well, which has been a pleasant surprise. But she suffered an ankle injury in late July that we are hoping will heal in time for her to play most of the season.

South Park

Coach: Chad Farrington (7th year at South Park, 13th as girls head coach)

Returning Starters:

Jordin Bachner, 5-6, senior, setter
Alexa Albert, 5-8, senior, outside hitter
Sophia Cox, 5-8, senior, middle blocker
Jacie Hilligsberg, 5-5, senior, outside hitter
Ally Wilder, 5-5, senior, outside hitter
Mady Wilder, 5-6, senior, middle blocker
Sydney Sekely, 5-9, junior, outside hitter
Stephanie Vamosy, 5-3, sophomore, defensive specialist
Jessa Harmer, 5-2, sophomore, defensive specialist
Kacey Ziegler, 5-7, sophomore, right side hitter
Madelyn Lafferty, 5-2, sophomore, setter

Season Outlook:

The coming season is one built around high goals and expectations. The majority of our returning players saw significant varsity playing time and we're looking to build from where we left off last year. There's a lot of positivity around the girls and team already, and we're excited to get this season kicked off.

Section Favorite:

Keystone Oaks is the returning section champs, they'll be the favorite headed into the season. South Allegheny should have another solid year in the coming season. Carlynton is also an unknown being new to the section, they could be an interesting team to keep an eye on. South Park will be in the mix.

WPIAL Favorite:

Beaver and Freeport, the two finalists in AA last year, have both moved up to AAA. Quaker Valley and Avonworth were in the semis last year, both lost some senior leadership, but I'd have to say the early season favorite would have to be one of the two.

Young Players to Watch:

The four returning sophomores we have will all be key players. Kacey and Mady both made the all section team last year as freshmen. Steph and Jessa will both have massively increasing roles in the coming season. Alex Knox is an incoming freshman at Peters Township who will be making an immediate impact to that team.

Southmoreland

Coach: Michelle Pergar (1st year at Southmoreland)

Returning Starters:

Taylor Doppelheuer, 6-0, senior, Middle
Riley Puckey, 5-7, senior, setter
Makayla Etling, 5-6, senior, outside hitter
Ainsley Martin, 5-3, junior, libero
Zoey Welling, 5-7, junior, setter

Season Outlook:

I expect our team to win the section and make it to the playoffs.

Section Favorite:

 Southmoreland

Waynesburg

Coach: Dan Higinbotham (12th year)

Returning Starters:

Railey Bochna, 5-10, sophomore, outside hitter
Mikaylynn Good, 5-6, senior, outside hitter
Gina Tedrow, 5-6, junior, setter
Chatham Knight, 5-4, sophomore, setter
Lelia McCollum, 5-1, sophomore, defensive specialist

Season Outlook:

I have high hopes for my team this year. Overall we have a young team with a lot of ambition. We also have 2 new players that will be a great asset to our team.

Section Favorite:

Our section has many new teams so it's really hard to say who the favorite would be. I do like our chances this year though.

WPIAL Favorite:

There are many great teams in the wpial. I would have to say the favorite would be Avonworth.

Young Players to Watch:

Three players from Waynesburg: freshman Emily Rafferty, and sophomores Railey Bochna and Lelia McCollum.

Yough

Coach: Kelly Fitterer (3rd year)

Returning Starters:

Addy Seanor, senior, 5-10, setter/outside hitter
Adoria Waldier, senior, 5-10, setter/outside hitter
Hailey Bock, senior, 5-11, middle hitter
Alyvia Singer, junior, 6-0, middle hitter
Kadee Roebuck, senior, 5-9 libero

Season Outlook:

We are starting our season off playing in a different section due to the alignment. We are up for the challenge of playing against teams we never played before.

Section Favorite:

Deer Lakes is a team that has been mentioned in several conversations. Not sure if it's a favorite but definitely going to be a match to look forward to.

Young Players to Watch:

 Alyvia Singer (Yough)
